Article 6 - Championship Arrangements

6.1. Mandatory Defences

6.1.1. Following nomination by the Classifications Commission of the Official Challenger or, where necessary, a substitute, the two Boxers who are to box for the title and the Promoter approved by the CISBB Council to promote the contest shall have three months within which to make the necessary arrangements for the contests to take place.

The said Promoter shall notify the CISBB Council of the arrangements and send to it copies of the contracts which he has entered into with both Boxers.

6.1.2 The boxers' purses are always net of all taxes and the boxers are entitled to receive their purses according to the purse bid or according to the agreement of fight. The promoter shall pay to the CISBB the sanction fee of 5% of the total of the two boxers purses with a minimum of Euro 1000 for all weight categories.

6.1.3. The contracts must be authorised in writing by the Affiliated National Federation by whom the Boxers are licensed. The contracts must be lodged with the CISBB Council at least 30 days before the date of the contest failing which the CISBB Council shall have discretion to stop the contest taking place;

The contest must take place before the expiration of the six months period.

6.1.4. Except with the written authorisation of the CISBB Council neither a CISBB Champion nor a Challenger for his title, whether Official or otherwise, shall box less than 28 days before he is due to box for a CISBB title from the date of opening of the purse or from the date of a signed agreement, if the fight is scheduled by agreement.

6.1.5. Council of CISBB coordinates the decision with central office of WBC in the approved forms (see the section "Blank Forms for Coordination of Fight with Central Office of WBC")

6.1.6. A contest for a CISBB title whose date and venue have been arranged cannot be postponed save in exceptional circumstances and with the approval of the CISBB Council.

6.1.7. Save as provided in paragraph (6-1), where a mandatory defence of the CISBB title, whose date and venue has been arranged, cannot take place for whatever reason then the CISBB Council may, at its absolute discretion, put out a contest for that CISBB title on such terms as it deems fit.

6.2. Voluntary Defences

6.2.1. A CISBB Champion wishing to defend his title voluntarily must first obtain the approval of the CISBB Council. The full record of the prospective challenger shall be submitted to the CISBB Council for approval;

(ii) If the CISBB Council approves the voluntary defence the CISBB Champion shall not engage in a voluntary defence of his title against any other opponent prior to the approved contest;

6.2.2. A voluntary defence, which date and place has been accepted by CISBB Council can not be postponed, if the reason is unavailability of the Challenger.
The Champion can defend against another rated opponent on the accepted date, if a substitute can be found.

6.2.3. If a proposed voluntary defence is not approved by the CISBB Council, any contracts which may have been entered into between the Boxers, the Managers and any Promoters shall be null and void;

6.2.4. For the avoidance of doubt, the successful voluntary defence of his title by a CISBB Champion shall not have any effect on his obligations in relation to the mandatory defence of his title;

6.2.5. If the CISBB Champion loses his title in a voluntary defence, the new CISBB Champion has to meet his Official Challenger before being allowed any voluntary defence and this within a period of three (3) months from the date when the new Champion won the title.

6.2.6. A CISBB Champion who wins the title in a voluntary defence must make a mandatory defence of his title prior to any voluntary defence.

6.3. General

6.3.1. If, between the date when the Official Challenger has been nominated by the Classifications Commission and the time limit by which the contest must take place, the following shall occur :

(a) When the CISBB Champion is beaten, he shall be deprived of his CISBB title and his opponent shall qualify to meet the Official Challenger in a contest for the CISBB title;
or

(b) When the Official Challenger is beaten in a contest, then, unless otherwise determined by the Classifications Commission at its complete discretion, he shall be replaced by the highest rated and available contender who accepts to be the next Official Challenger.

Article 7 - Purse Offers

7.1. In the event that no contracts are lodged with the CISBB Council within three months of the Official Challenger having been nominated, the General Secretary of the CISBB shall notify all Affiliated National Federations forthwith that Purse Offers are requested for a contest between the relevant CISBB Champion and the Official Challenger.

7.2. All payments must be done in Euro

7.2.1. The affiliated National Federation of the Country in which the contest takes place shall be responsible for ensuring that the purses are paid irrespective of whether the contest has been put out for purse offers and will also be responsible for ensuring that the sums due to be paid are transferred, where necessary, out of the jurisdiction. Payment to both Boxers must be completed immediately following the contest, according to the terms of the contracts.

7.3. Purse Offers shall be sent to the General Secretary of the CISBB within 21 days of a request for purse offers having been notified to affiliated National Federations. The purse offers can be accepted by the General Secretary directly from the Promoter with the approval of his Federation.

All purse offers shall be submitted through Promoters by affiliated National Federations and shall be sent by special delivery.

- the General Secretariat will not accept the notice of the agreement among the involved parties if such notice is not accompanied by the required contracts;
- the General Secretariat will accept the purse bids only if the Federation of the promoter sends the declaration to have received the deposit of the bond (art.7/7 of the Championship Regulations);
- The purse bids for all the CISBB Championships shall be sent to the CISBB General Secretariat only by post. All purse offers transmitted by fax and not delivered in sealed envelope shall be considered null and void.

The purse offers shall specify a maximum period between 60 and 75 days within which the contest shall be promoted. In submitting a purse offer, the Promoter accepts the travel and accommodation expenses of three persons (boxer, manager, and trainer) shall be paid by him for three days for visiting Boxers.

7.4. If either:

7.4.1. No purse offers are received within the time limit specified
Or

7.4.2. The purse offer or offers received are considered by the CISBB Council, at its absolute discretion, to be of an reasonable amount; the General Secretariat then calls for a new purse bid procedure by notifying affiliated National Federations. In such circumstances, the CISBB Council may direct that purse offers are to be submitted within such period as it deems fit.

When purse offers are called for the second time, the short terms shall be of 15 days and the very short terms shall be of 7 days.

7.5. No contest will be approved by the CISBB Council unless it is to be promoted by a Promoter licensed by an affiliated National Federation.

7.6. Purse offers shall be inclusive of all ancillary rights and, specifically, shall include the possible televising, broadcasting or screening of the contest by film or other means. The sum to be received by the visiting Boxer or Boxers shall be free of all taxes (whether federal, national or municipal).

7.7. When submitting a Purse Offer to the General Secretary, the Affiliated National Federations shall attach a letter bearing the following text (failing such a declaration, the bid will be considered null and void) :

DECLARATION CONCERNING PURSE OFFERS

Our Federation declares to have received a bond of EURO 3 000 from Promoter Mr. _____ as warranty of his promotion of the contest _____ versus _____. This bond will be confiscated by the CISBB if, for whatever reason, the Promoter does not promote the contest.

7.8. The promoter winner of the purse offers shall have between 15 and 30 days to specify the date of the contest. He shall organise the contest between 60 and 75 days from the date of opening of the bids but not before 21 days from such a date, unless agreement of the involved parties.

7.9. If a promoter winner of purse offers withdraws from the promotion of the contest, the General Secretary will ask the second bidder if he accepts to conform his bid to the first one. If he refuses, the new purse offers will be called forthwith in very short terms."

7.10. The contender (champion or challenger) who withdraws from a mandatory CISBB contest, except for reason independent from his will:

-after that the purse offers have been awarded or;

-after the contest has been agreed by the parties and approved by the General Secretary; shall be fined by the amount of EURO 3.000 and shall no longer be eligible as official challenger for the period of 6 full months. In the case he does not comply with such a decision, he will be removed from the CISBB Ratings until the fine has been paid.

Article 8 - Purse Money

8.1. In the event of a CISBB Championship being submitted for Purse Offers, such purse shall be divided as follows : · 60% to the Champion · 40% to the Challenger

8.2. In the event of the title being vacant, the Purse shall be divided on the basis of 50% for both Boxers.

Article 9 – Officials

9.1. Contests for CISBB Championship at whichever venue they are held shall be controlled by a Referee (non scoring) and by three neutral Judges, whose decision shall be final.

9.2. The President in accordance with the General Secretary shall appoint a Supervisor who shall act as overall supervisor of the arrangements for each CISBB Championship Contest. He will act as the Official in charge of all matters concerning the CISBB in relation to each such contest save for deciding the winner.

9.3. The President in accordance with the General Secretary shall nominate the Referee, Supervisor and Judges for CISBB Championship Contest.

9.4. The Referee, Supervisor and Judges must be contacted by a representative of the Affiliated National Federation immediately on their arrival at the town where the contest is taking place. The Referee, Supervisor and Judges if possible shall not stay at the same hotel as the Boxers.

12.2. Be declared ineligible to challenge for a CISBB Championship until the expiration of six months from the date he is notified by the CISBB of his ineligibility.

Article 13 - Loss of title

A CISBB Champion shall lose his title in the following ways:

13.1. If he is beaten in a contest within the limit of the division.

13.2. If he is defeated in a contest taking place under Championship conditions and recognised as such by the CISBB

13.3. If he does not submit to the weighing-in formalities which shall take place the day before the contest; (see Art.4.3. of the "Boxing Rules")

13.4. If he defends or endeavours to defend his title outside the jurisdiction of the CISBB

13.5. If a disciplinary measure of suspension or for any other suspension's matter, requested either by the Federation where the boxer is affiliated or by the CISBB, preventing the Champion to defend his title in the due time.

13.6. If owing to sickness, accident or any other reason he is unable to box and, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, or where he is unable or unwilling to participate in a contest for a CISBB title whose date and venue has been arranged, the CISBB exercises its discretion to put out a contest on such terms as it deems fit.

13.7. If he surrenders his title due to being overweight or for any other reason.

13.8. If his conduct as a Boxer is regarded by the CISBB Council as being improper.

13.9. If he participates in a contest for his national title and loses it.

13.10. If he fails a drug test.

13.11. If he is beaten in a contest made at the Championship weight for the division in which he is Champion by a boxer whose citizenship, nationality and/or boxing license qualifies him as a possible contender for a CISBB Championship.

13.12. If the Champion has lost his title for one of these reasons, the highest rated boxer in the current Ratings, after the Official Challenger who confirms acceptance of the position will be appointed challenger to meet him in a contest for the vacant title.

Article 14 - Disciplinary Procedure

14.1. The President in consultation with one Vice-President and one Council member shall have power to propose to suspend a Boxer for any alleged breach of CISBB rules. He shall then preside at a commission with 3 members of the Council as a Committee plus a member from the Boxer's Federation to decide about the proposition. The Boxer shall be entitled to be present and to be represented at any hearing.

Article 15 - Rules of Boxing

15.1. The CISBB Council shall endeavour to standardise a set of Championship Rules which will be recognised by all the countries whose Affiliated National Federation is affiliated to the CISBB. Such rules shall be recognised by each Affiliated National Federation who shall also procure that its licensees recognise such rules.

Article 16 – Champions

16.1. No Boxer may be permitted to hold a CISBB title in two weight categories simultaneously. A Boxer on winning a second title shall decide which one to retain and the vacated title shall immediately be declared vacant.

Article 17 - Return Matches
